III. Performance discussion and analysis1. Business review for report period

Is the Company subject to the disclosure requirements for special industries?

No.

In the first half of 2019, China's economy remained stable, but not without changes and concerns. Overall economic growth was slowing down. In terms of power generation, China's output increased by 3.3% in the first half of 2019 as compared to the same period of last year, 0.9 percentage point slower than the first quarter of the current year. In face of shrinking markets, the Company showed no fear. With the guide of the Belt and the Road, the Company continues to expand China boiler and mill market with its advanced technology and high efficiency boiler products.

During the report period, all the employees of the Company overcame difficulties and forged ahead under the leadership of the Management, saving expenses and at the same time keeping production and operation continuously stable. According to the Chinese accounting standards, for the report period, operating revenue achieved during the report period was RMB 597,379,592.01, increased by 7.25% over the same period of last year; operating profit was RMB -131,236.07, decreased by 100.16% as compared to the same period of last year; and net profit attributable to shareholders of the Company was RMB -2,832,520.25, decreased by 103.6% over the same period of last year.
